COURSE DESCRIPTION

CREATIVE ART & DESIGN STUDIO

JULY 8-26, 2024

This 3-week, 3-credit course runs Monday-Friday, three hours per day.

The course curriculum will be supplemented by additional creative and cultural enrichment activities outside of class time.

GUILLERMINA SUÁREZ

This intensive course is designed for students who wish to develop their studio skills while learning new ways of approaching visual communication. It comprises a variety of subject areas, including creative design, figure drawing, illustration and visual narrative. Projects in each subject area are designed for students to explore the boundaries of their creativity.

The course is taught by fine arts and design professionals from the SVA faculty.

SUPPLEMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Students will have the opportunity to attend guest lectures with creative professionals and visit locations around NYC to complete a visual diary project.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

Students are responsible for purchasing basic materials, such as drawing supplies, and will be sent a materials list prior to the start of the course. Some specialized materials may be provided.

NOTE Course curriculum, faculty and supplemental activities are subject to change.

HOUSING

Housing is optional with limited availability at the 23rd Street Residence, which is adjacent to the College's main building (209 E. 23rd Street).

Apartments come with two or three shared bedrooms, hosting four to six students each. Each apartment has central air and heat, as well as full kitchen and bathroom facilities, and many rooms offer sweeping views of the Chrysler Building, the Empire

State Building or the East River. Wireless Internet access is available. Recreational space and laundry facilities are located in the basement.

The residence has 24-hour security at the building's entrance. People must show a photo ID to enter. A program staff member is on duty each evening to provide assistance and support to students.
